Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

opportunities that bring stability to families, individuals, and communities.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

Before filing the IRS form 990, the Chief Financial Officer sends the IRS form 990 to the board members for their review. Any concerns that the board members have regarding the 990 are addressed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Annually, members of the board of directors complete an information sheet that includes listing their place of business and other board/organization affiliations. New board members attend a board orientation meeting where all policies are reviewed. Board members are asked to abstain on any vote where a possible conflict of interest exists. Decisions that need full board approval are typically reviewed at the executive committee meeting that is held monthly; furthermore, the full board meets quarterly. The Board Chair and the President & CEO are present at the executive committee meetings where items that need board approval are discussed. The Board Chair or President & CEO may identify potential conflicts of interests of other board members during the discussion of the items that needs board approval. This conflict of interest will be stated during the full board meeting. Board members complete a conflict of interest disclosure form annually.

Employee evaluations are completed annually. Each employee is given a merit score based upon his/her performance. The Human Resources Director compiles a confidential report of all employees evaluations which is then give to the Chief Financial Officer (CFO). The CFO will calculate percentage increases for employees using information from the evaluation report, the agency budget, and the employee's earnings during the fiscal year. The CFO reviews the percentage increases with the President& CEO and the Vice President. The President & CEO, Vice President and CFO approve the agency wide percentage increase and employees typically receive their salary increases on July 1 of each year.

Typically, the Human Resources Director conducts an executive compensation comparison by reviewing wage and benefit survey reports from a third party. The Human Resources Director creates a confidential executive compensation comparison report for review by the Brighton Center Executive Committee. The Brighton Center Board Chair reports to the Brighton Center Executive Committee of the Board of Directors the compensation comparison review.
