

POSITIVE OUTCOMES FOR CLIENTS FROM THE BRIGHTON CENTER FOR WOMEN

Recovery Kentucky was created to help Kentuckians recover from substance abuse, which often leads to chronic homelessness. There are 17 Recovery Kentucky centers across the Commonwealth, providing housing and recovery services for up to 2,100 persons simultaneously. This fact sheet describes outcomes for 40 women who participated in the Brighton Center for Women recovery program between July 2014 and June 2015.
