| Auditors should count all buildings that are part of the facility, whether residents are formally allowed to enter them or not. In situations where temporary structures have been erected (e.g., tents) the auditor should use their discretion to determine whether to include the structure in the overall count of buildings. As a general rule, if a temporary structure is regularly or routinely used to hold or house residents, or if the temporary structure is used to house or support operational functions for more than a short period of time (e.g., an emergency situation), it should be included in the overall count of buildings.   | 1          |
| Enter 0 if the facility does not have discrete housing units. DOJ PREA Working Group FAQ on the definition of a housing unit: How is a "housing unit" defined for the purposes of the PREA Standards? The question has been raised in particular as it relates to facilities that have adjacent or interconnected units. The most common concept of a housing unit is architectural. The generally agreed-upon definition is a space that is enclosed by physical barriers accessed through one or more doors of various types, including commercial-grade swing doors, steel sliding doors, interlocking sally port doors, etc. In addition to the primary entrance and exit, additional doors are often included to meet life safety codes. The unit contains sleeping space, sanitary facilities (including toilets, lavatories, and showers), and a dayroom or leisure space in differing configurations. Many facilities are designed with modules or pods clustered around a control room. This multiple-pod design provides the facility with certain staff efficiencies and economies of scale. At the same time, the design affords the flexibility to separately house residents of differing security levels, or who are grouped by some other operational or service scheme. Generally, the control room is enclosed by security glass, and in some cases, this allows residents to see into neighboring pods. However, observation from one unit to another is usually limited by angled site lines. In some cases, the facility has prevented this entirely by installing one-way glass. Both the architectural design and functional use of these multiple pods indicate that they are managed as distinct housing units. | 0          |

Audit Findings

Audit Narrative

The auditor's description of the audit methodology should include a detailed description of the following processes during the pre-onsite audit, onsite audit, and post-audit phases: documents and files reviewed, discussions and types of interviews conducted, number of days spent on-site, observations made during the site-review, and a detailed description of any follow-up work conducted during the post-audit phase. The narrative should describe the techniques the auditor used to sample documentation and select interviewees, and the auditor's process for the site review.

In 2008 Brighton Center, Inc. opened the facility Brighton Recovery Center for Women located at 375 Weaver Road, Florence Kentucky. Brighton Recovery Center for Women is a 108-bed long-term recovery program (Alcohol/Drug Rehabilitation Program) for adult women located in Boone County Kentucky that utilizes Recovery Dynamics and is a peer driven model. The focus is to help the women change their behavior, skills, and attitudes related to the disease of drug addiction and alcoholism. Brighton Recovery Center for Women has a contract with the Kentucky Department of Corrections (KY DOC) that's mission is to protect the citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and to provide a safe, secure and humane environment for staff and offenders in carrying out the mandates of the legislative and judicial processes; and, to provide opportunities for offenders to acquire skills which facilitate non-criminal behavior. The Contract Management Branch of the Kentucky Department of Corrections (KY DOC) is responsible for overseeing community services centers (halfway houses) that house state probationers, inmates and parolees, inmates/residents who are classified as community custody and are near their parole eligibility dates are placed in halfway houses. This integration program allows inmates/residents to become reacquainted with their families and the community and give them a head start in seeking employment. enrolling in vocational schools and/or college programs, and have access to community substance abuse, medical, and mental health care/treatment. The Kentucky Department of Corrections (KY DOC) agency policy in compliance with Section 115.22 of Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) Standards date filed 12/10/2013 and effective 2/3/2014. (This date the facility housed 60 state inmates/residents.) Brighton Recovery Center for Women has a Kentucky Department of Corrections (KY DOC) audit twice a year. The other residents of Brighton Recovery Center for Women are from a number of referral sources including but not limited to local county judges and/or courts, Casey's Law (which allows the parents, relatives, or friends of an addicted person to lawfully intervene and request involuntary, court-ordered addiction treatment for their addicted loved one), Kentucky Department of Community Based Services (DCBS), Family Care Clinics, Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy, the Kentucky Housing Corp., and some are self-referred (volunteer). The facility has a total of 99 residents (age 18 years and over). Brighton Recovery Center for Women utilizes a Recovery Kentucky Model (a long-term social model of recovery), an initiative to help Kentuckians recover from substance abuse and prevent chronic homelessness by offering long-term care housing centers and integrates a peer to peer self-help recovery system with the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous and other classes. The mission of Recovery Kentucky "is to provide hope to the homeless and those in fear of homelessness, who are suffering from alcohol and drug addiction by using a program that integrates a peer-to-peer self-help model". The focus is to help women change their behavior, skills, and attitudes related to their addictive lifestyles. Brighton Recovery Center for Women takes a long-term, holistic approach to recovery that is comprised of four distinct modules of progression and ultimately connected to an array of Brighton Center, Inc. services. Independent research of Brighton Center for Women's impact consistently shows drastic reductions in substance abuse, homelessness, and mental health issues such as anxiety, depression, and suicidal thoughts. The average length of stay is approximately 98 days. The PREA on-site audit was the second PREA audit for Brighton Recovery Center for Women (the first PREA Final Report dated 8/8/2016) conducted by DOJ Certified PREA Auditor, Tina Sallee. During the preaudit phase, the auditor reviewed a variety of documents provided by the facility. These documents included but were not limited to agency and facility policies and procedures demonstrating compliance with the PREA Community Confinement Standards, staffing plan, floor plans, protocols, training records for staff/contractors/volunteers, training records for residents, and other documents related to demonstrating compliance with the PREA Community Confinement Standards. This auditor did not receive any correspondence or requests from residents or staff prior to the on-site audit (a notice was posted with contact information for the PREA Auditor/audit date six weeks prior to the on-site audit as required). An entrance meeting was held with Anita Prater, Director/Agency-Wide PREA Coordinator/Facility PREA Compliance Manager/trained PREA Investigator and Snezana Tenhundfeld, Program Coordinator/trained PREA Investigator. The on-site audit schedule of activities were discussed including clarification of documentation that were generated by pre-audit phase for both; samples of residents and staff that were required to be interviewed by PREA Auditor were selected; and specialized staff required to be interviewed by PREA Auditor were identified (using resident roster and staff schedule). All areas required to be viewed by the PREA Auditor during the on-site audit were discussed. Also, additional pre-audit information regarding facility PREA Community Confinement Standards compliance. All areas of the facility were viewed including administration area, front office, visitation areas, kitchen and dining area, 40 semi-private rooms with private restrooms, classrooms/meeting rooms, recreational and outside areas. PREA related informational posters were prominently posted and the PREA audit notice was also observed posted in the facility. Additionally, informational pamphlets regarding PREA and crisis services are given out during the intake/PREA education/orientation for each resident immediately upon arrival at the facility; and PREA information posters/contact information are posted for both resident and staff access. No SAFE or SANE staff are employed at this facility; however, these professionals are provided at St. Elizabeth Healthcare Emergency Room where forensic examinations would be conducted at no cost to the resident and/or to their family if/when needed.

Interviews were conducted with Anita Prater, Director/Agency-Wide PREA Coordinator/Facility PREA Compliance Manager/trained PREA Investigator (also interviewed as a designee for Agency Head, as a member of the Incident Review Team, a designated staff member charged with monitoring retaliation and/or grievances); Snezana Tenhundfeld, Program Coordinator/trained PREA Investigator (also interviewed as a trained PREA Investigative Staff; as a member of the Incident Review Team, as a member charged with monitoring retaliation and/or grievances, as the staff for monitoring volunteer/contractors PREA education/training, as staff that performs screening for Risk Assessment for Victimization and/or Abusiveness,); Kendra Robertson, LPN (also interviewed as a member of the Incident Review Team, as a random sample of staff regarding PREA training, as a staff trained as a First Responder); Crystal Luna, Case Manager (also interviewed as random sample of staff regarding PREA training, as staff that performs screening for Risk Assessment for Victimization and/or Abusiveness, as staff trained as a First Responder); Resident Monitors (also interviewed as random sample of staff regarding PREA training, as staff trained as a First Responder, as staff that conducts intake process which includes orientation of program/education regarding PREA of all residents immediately upon intake, as staff that performs screening for Risk Assessment for Victimization and/or Abusiveness, and as facility staff responsible for conducting and documenting unannounced rounds); and female residents. There were no residents to interview that had made a report of a sexual harassment/abuse nature; there was one (1) residents that identified as being gay/bisexual; there were no transgender or intersex residents to interview; there were no LEP residents to interview; and there were no residents to interview that identified as being disabled.

During the past 12 months, there have been zero (0) administrative reports and/or investigations of sexual harassment and/or sexual abuse at Brighton Recovery Center for Women. During the past 12 months, there have been zero (0) criminal reports and/or investigations of sexual harassment and/or sexual abuse. Documentation and staff interviews confirmed that all allegations/reports of sexual harassment and/or sexual abuse be referred immediately for investigation. The agency with the authority to conduct criminal investigations would be contingent on the supervision of the resident (state residents are referred to Kentucky Department of Corrections (KY DOC) and would include Kentucky State Police when necessary). Mental health services (from meeting with a victim at the hospital as an advocate and on to provide counseling and support) can be provided locally by Northern Kentucky Women's Crisis Center and/or NorthKey Community Care if/when necessary.

Some female residents interviewed reported that they had been located in another adult correctional facility (and knew of PREA) before coming to Brighton Recovery Center for Women. All residents interviewed were complimentary of their thoughts and feelings regarding immediate intake/orientation to the program, including the PREA education, and the safety and security of this facility. Documentation, staff and resident interviews confirmed that all residents are assessed to ascertain risk of being sexually victimized and/or abusive and the facility uses this information to keep residents safe. Residents who have experienced trauma, abuse, or victimization and/or request it are provided additional services as needed.

An exit conferences was held with Anita Prater, Director/Agency-Wide PREA Coordinator/Facility PREA Compliance Manager/trained PREA Investigator and Snezana Tenhundfeld, Program Coordinator/trained PREA Investigator. Documents were timely and complete. Staff and resident interviews occurred efficiently. Overall, the facility was well prepared for the PREA audit and performed well in all areas. After reviewing all pertinent information and after conducting resident and staff interviews, the auditor found that agency/facility leadership have clearly made PREA compliance a high priority and have devoted a significant amount of time and resources to PREA policy development, training of all staff and volunteers and contractors in the facility, and immediate education upon intake with all resident regarding PREA aspects.

Facility Characteristics

The auditor's description of the audited facility should include details about the facility type, demographics and size of the inmate, resident or detainee population, numbers and type of staff positions, configuration and layout of the facility, numbers of housing units, description of housing units including any special housing units, a description of programs and services, including food service and recreation. The auditor should describe how these details are relevant to PREA implementation and compliance.

In 2008 Brighton Center, Inc. opened the facility Brighton Recovery Center for Women located at 375 Weaver Road, Florence Kentucky. Brighton Recovery Center for Women is a 108-bed long-term recovery program (Alcohol/Drug Rehabilitation Program) for adult women located in Boone County Kentucky that utilizes Recovery Dynamics and is a peer driven model. This date the facility housed 99 residents. Brighton Recovery Center for Women has a contract with the Kentucky Department of Corrections (KY DOC) (this date the facility housed 60 state inmates/residents). Brighton Recovery Center for Women has a Kentucky Department of Corrections (KY DOC) audit twice a year. The other residents of Brighton Recovery Center for Women are from a number of referral sources including but not limited to local county judges and/or courts, Casey's Law (which allows the parents, relatives, or friends of an addicted person to lawfully intervene and request involuntary, court-ordered addiction treatment for their addicted loved one), Kentucky Department of Community Based Services (DCBS), Family Care Clinics, Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy, the Kentucky Housing Corp., and some are self-referred (volunteer). The average length of stay is approximately 98 days. Brighton Recovery Center for Women facility currently employs 15 staff, has 3 individual contractors, and 17 volunteers that may have contact with the residents and have been educated on the agency/facility policy regarding zero-tolerance toward all forms of sexual harassment and/or sexual abuse (also referred to as PREA). The facility is housed in one secured building and features 40 semiprivate rooms with private restrooms (each restroom in each apartment is private with a toilet, shower with curtain, and sink), community kitchen, pantry, dining hall, laundry rooms, meeting rooms/classrooms, administrative offices, conference room, visitation areas, there are outside areas (including smoking area and parking area). There are currently five (5) cameras inside this facility, there are external cameras (external doorways) with two (2) video monitors (used to monitor individuals entrance into the facility and for parking area security) and agency/facility continue having on-going discussions regarding adequate levels of staffing and/or future possibility of utilizing more camera/video monitoring in order to continue to protect both resident and staff from sexual harassment/sexual abuse and/or allegations of such.

The PREA audit notice and PREA posters containing PREA information are prominently posted for resident and staff access.

There have been no significant modifications to this facility since first PREA Audit (Final PREA Report dated 8/8/2016) but the facility has added five (5) video cameras and two (2) video monitors to increase security. Documentation and staff interviews confirmed the practice that any expansion or modifications to existing facility has been and in future will take into consideration the effect of any modification, expansion, and/or additional video monitoring system and/or other monitoring technology upon the facility's ability to protect residents and staff from sexual harassment/sexual abuse.

Residents have multiple internal and external ways to privately report sexual harassment/sexual abuse, retaliation by other residents or staff for reporting sexual harassment/sexual abuse and/or staff neglect or violation of responsibilities that may have contributed to such reports. Staff interview confirmed that staff can privately report sexual harassment/sexual abuse of residents also. The agency/facility policy is that all staff will accept reports made verbally, in writing, anonymously, and from third parties and promptly document any/all reports.

(a)-(b) Brighton Recovery Center for Women had first PREA audit in 2016 with a PREA Final Report dated 8/8/2016. (h)-(n) The documents were timely and complete. These documents included but were not limited to agency and facility policies and procedures demonstrating compliance with the PREA Community Confinement Standards, facility staffing plan, facility floor plan, protocols, employee training records, residents training forms, and other documents related to demonstrating compliance with the PREA Community Confinement Standards. This auditor did not receive any correspondence or request from residents or staff prior to the on-site audit (a notice was posted with contact information for the PREA Auditor/audit date six weeks prior to the on-site audit as required). Staff and resident interviews occurred efficiently and privately. Overall, the agency/facility was well prepared for the PREA audit and performed well in all areas. After reviewing all pertinent information and after conducting staff and resident interviews, the auditor found that the agency/facility leadership have clearly made PREA compliance a high priority and have devoted a significant amount of time and resourced to PREA policy development, training of all staff and volunteers in the facility, and immediate education upon intake with all residents regarding PREA aspect.
